

Weddings and Engagements

SIR ANTHONY LEAVES AFTER 10 DAYS' VISIT

Sir Anthony Patrick McDonnell, who has been a guest of the Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce in the British embassy on Connecticut avenue for the last ten days, left Washington Monday for New York. During his stay here the Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce entertained informally almost every evening, inviting a few intimate friends to meet him at dinner. The dinner Saturday evening in honor of the birthday of the King was the only large entertainment given during his visit, as he came for a quiet rest. Sir Anthony, who is the under secretary to the lord lieutenant of Ireland, is spending about a month in this country.

The Minister from Cuba and Mme. Quesada, who have been abroad since early in the summer, are traveling in Europe with their children, and will not return to Washington until about the middle of January. Senor Quesada was a delegate to the peace conference at The Hague. Upon the conclusion of the conference he asked for an extended leave of absence. It is expected that they will bring with them furnishings for their new home on Massachusetts avenue, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, which they have recently purchased from Henry Clay Evans.

Mrs. Hornsby Entertaining Guests.

Mrs. Isham Hornsby, who has returned to her home on I street for the winter, has as her guests her son-in-law and daughter, Col. and Mrs. Robert H. Evans. Last evening Mrs. Hornsby entertained an informal company at dinner complimentary to them.

Mrs. Shepherd has gone to Albany, where she will be the guest for a short time of Mrs. Krassus Corning.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, who have been in New York since their recent arrival from Europe, where they spent the spring and summer, are expected in Washington. Pending the completion of their new residence they will occupy the Morgan house, on Scott circle.

Mrs. Faison, wife of Major Samuel L. Faison, will spend the winter in Washington with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Z. T. Sowers. Mrs. Faison, who was formerly Miss Eleanor Sowers, has been in the Philippines since her marriage last December. Major Faison will come to Washington later in the season.

Mrs. Samuel Thomas, of Washington is spending a few days in New York at the Hotel Gotham.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchell are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mitchell, in Manchester.

Engagement Announced.

Senator and Mrs. Robert L. Taylor have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Katharine Baird Taylor, to M. Hillsman Taylor, of Trenton, Tenn. The wedding date has not yet been announced, but it will probably take place some time in January, in Washington.

The bride-elect is the youngest daughter of Senator and Mrs. Taylor, and a bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Z. Taylor. He is a graduate of the law department of Vanderbilt University.

Creels Call on Roosevelt.

President and Mrs. Roosevelt yesterday received the Ambassador from Mexico and Mme. Creel, who made their first visit of ceremony since their return to Washington, last Saturday evening. Mme. Creel wore a handsome gown of mauve crepe de chine. Senor Creel, who is governor of his state, in addition to his diplomatic office, will spend the winter in Washington.

The engagement is announced of Miss Anne Lee Burson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Burson, of Alexandria, Va., to Samuel A. Burson, of Jacksonville, Fla., formerly of King William county, Va. Miss Burson is well known in Washington and Alexandria. She has spent most of her life in the latter city, where her home is a historic landmark, having been the boyhood home of Gen. Robert E. Lee. Miss Burson is educated in Quebec and has traveled quite extensively in Europe. Miss Burson's father was auditor of the Confederate States. Her mother is a daughter of Hector L. Davis, of Hanover county, Va., whose wife was a direct descendant of Rowland Jones, first rector of the old Bruton Church, in Williamsburg, Va. The wedding will take place in the home of Miss Burson some time next month.

Mme. J. Espinosa-Daly will give a matinee musicale Thursday afternoon, from 3 to 5, in honor of Miss Marie McKevitt.

The Swastika Club will give a dance Friday evening at 8:30 in Mrs. Dyer's hall. H. G. Kneest and A. A. Penderon are on the committee.

The marriage of Miss Alice Regina Rasin, daughter of the late J. I. Rasin, to J. S. Barnoud Danglefield, will take place Saturday next, in the bride's home in Baltimore. The Rev. John F.

Mrs. Mae Hamilton Wilson Wedded to H. S. Powell

MRS. HENRY SPENCER POWELL,
Formerly Mrs. Mae Hamilton Wilson, Whose Marriage Took Place Last Evening in the Home of Her Parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton.

Mrs. Mae Hamilton Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton, and Henry Spencer Powell, formerly of Cincinnati, now of Washington and New York, were married last evening in the home of the bride's parents.

The lower floor of the house was prettily decorated with a profusion of palms and yellow and white chrysanthemums, and the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Dr. Buckley, assistant rector of St. Matthew's Catholic Church, took place before an improvised altar of white satin. Mr. Hamilton escorted his daughter to the altar.

Walter Powell, of Cincinnati, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man, but the bride was unattended.

The bride gown was an empire costume of princess lace over chiffon and tulle, and effectively trimmed with touches of white satin. The bridal bouquet was a shower of purple violets and white orchids.

Only a small family party, a few out-of-town guests and intimate friends attended the ceremony. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Powell left for their bridal trip. Mrs. Powell wearing a modish tailored costume of London smoke broadcloth with a hat of the same shade, trimmed with roses and Russian pony furs. Upon their return to Washington they will occupy apartments in the Westmoreland.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. R. G. Powell, an aunt of the bridegroom, who came from England to be present at the wedding. Others included Miss Florence Danforth and Lindsey Smyth, Jr., of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Sellinger announce the engagement of their daughter, Fannie, to Aaron Hartstahl, both of Washington. They will be at home Sunday, November 17, from 7 to 10 o'clock, at 1552 Seventeenth street northwest.

Mrs. Benjamin Held has returned from New York, after a few weeks' visit.

Phil Herman and Leon Strauss are at the Battery Park Hotel, Asheville, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rasin have returned home, after a short trip to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Siegel, of New York, gave as their guest, Miss Hortense Sanderheimer, of Washington, where she will remain part of the winter.

Mrs. Joseph Wolf, of Oil City, Pa., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. Herzog, at 25 Randolph place northwest.

E. Charles Flesher left the end of the week for a visit to Philadelphia and Wilmington.

Mrs. Louis Kann, Mrs. Sam Rothschilde and Mrs. Abrams have returned from Jamestown, after a pleasant trip.

The regular monthly meeting of the Washington Section of the Council of Jewish Women held their meeting Tuesday, November 12, at 2:30 p. m. Interesting papers were read by the following visitors: Mrs. Hugo Rosenberg, national president of Pittsburgh; Mrs. Barbee, president of Chicago; Mrs. Ell Strauss, and Mrs. M. Goldenberg, of Baltimore; and Mrs. Wolberg, of Alexandria.

Miss Irma Stern sang several solos, and Miss Florence Herman gave a piano recital.

The board of directors of the C. J. W. entertained at luncheon at the Shoreham. The table decorations were blue and white, the council colors. The guests were Mrs. Hugo Rosenberg, Mrs. Barbee, Mrs. Ell Strauss, Mrs. M. Goldenberg, Mrs. Martin Earbee, Mrs. Ell Strauss, Mrs. M. Goldenberg, and Mrs. Wolberg.

L. W. Travis, commissioner of exploitation of the Jamestown Exposition, is and is now known and recommended the whole world over.

Home cures prove the value of Doan's Kidney Pills to our readers.

Washington Proof

Mrs. Annie Laydon, 1201 Twenty-third street northwest, Washington, D. C., says: "I made a statement in 1903 recommending Doan's Kidney Pills as a kidney and backache cure. I have nothing to retract from that statement at this time, April 15, 1907, but on the contrary, it gives me pleasure to state that the cure made by Doan's Kidney Pills in my case has proven to be a lasting one, as not a symptom of my old trouble has shown itself during the past four years. Prior to taking Doan's Kidney Pills, I did not have a well day for years, and was always doctoring, taking medicine and feeling bad. My back was weak and full of pain, and at times I was hardly able to get about to attend to my household duties. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Stevens' Pharmacy, Ninth street and Pennsylvania avenue, took them carefully, and as I said before, the good they did me is as apparent today as when I first used them 1903."

98c Some Worth $2.00

Makers' oddments—Men's deer skin, ladies' Glace Kid, Capetau, Pique Kid, and Mocha Gloves. All colors and all sizes. Choice for 98c pair.

Dress Goods, 29c yd.

Were 50c, 75c and $1

Every Palais Royal visitor knows these Wool Dress Goods. Very busy days since last Thursday—so that very many remnants have been laid aside for tomorrow's sale. All lengths of 2 to 15 yards, in 50c, 75c, and $1 Dress Goods have been reserved, to be sold tomorrow at only 29c yard for choice.

36c Yard for the Silks

Regular patrons know these 50c, 75c, and $1 yard Silks. The remnants—plenty of lengths for waists and a few dress patterns—are to be sold tomorrow at only 36c per yard.

Importers' Oddments, 79c Yd.

Whole pieces, including the wanted waterproof Mohairs and 54-inch wide plaid Suitings. 79c yard for $1.25, $1.50, and $1.75, qualities. See table full on second floor, near elevator.

16c to 25c Linings, 9c

All lengths of 2 to 15 yards are to be counted as remnants—and sold tomorrow at 9c per yard. Note that all the best selling linings will be found—and no other.

Trimnings, 4c and 8c Yd

The popular Braids, Gimps, Persian Bands, and one side effects first become remnants. Not a few generous lengths will be found here tomorrow, 25c to $1.00 qualities and widths, at only 4c and 8c per yard.

50c for $1 Laces

Broken Sets—not all widths in each pattern. Look for choicest of Oriental, Vienna, Irish Crochet, and Filet Laces, for trimming waists, jumpers, and for ruffling sleeves.

Dressmaking Needs, 3c for Choice

Snap Fasteners 1 dozen... Pin Sheets, 400 count, 1 paper... Silkaten, all colors, 1 spool... Darning Cotton, 6 spools... Lace Pins, all colors, 1 card... Safety Pins, all sizes, 1 card...
